Dear Member

A Grand Day Out - and you are invited
13th September 2017
A Garden Tour at Hereford Cathedral
(home to the Mappa Mundi – the largest medieval map in the world)
Lots more to do in this old historic place.

For the first time Caring for God's Acre is inviting members and supporters to meet in Hereford at 2.30 in the afternoon to enjoy a tour of all the Cathedral Gardens followed by tea and cake in College Hall overlooking one of those gardens. The cost is only £15.

We have negotiated other options if you choose to make more of the day (or stay for even longer in this stunning part of England!)

- See the Mappa Mundi Exhibition at the reduced price of £4 (normally £6)
- Take one of the regular Cathedral Tours at 11.15 or 12.15 in the morning – book in when you arrive with £1 off
- If weather and fitness is good then climb the tower for amazing views of the surrounding countryside
- Enjoy lunch in Café Mundi or one of the many cafes, restaurants or pubs nearby
- Walk in the historic city centre full of black and white buildings
- Pop into the old Buttermarket
- Visit the cider Museum and sample the product
- Walk by the River Wye in the ancient Bishop's Meadows

It is a chance to meet likeminded people in a beautiful place (with cake!)
We decided on one fixed point to get together leaving you free to soak up the city however you choose.

Hereford is accessible by train from North Wales and Manchester on the route to Newport and Cardiff (and vice versa). It is also a nice train ride from Birmingham via Worcester. From South East, Great Western to Newport and change for Hereford.

Road access: You leave motorways behind when you get to the most rural part of England but they will get you close enough before a delightful drive westwards. M5 and A40 are useful as is the A49 north /south and there are car parks.

We hope you like the idea and would love to see as many as possible of you for what we hope will be a Grand Day Out.

To book please see the attached form. The cost for Garden Tour followed by Tea and Cake is £15.

Yours sincerely

Anni Holden
